Summary of European Polygraph Journals:

Volume 4-2010-Number 4 (4)

Guiding Principles and Benchmarks for the Conduct of Validity Studies of Psychophysiological Veracity Examinations Using the Polygraph

Volume 4-2010-Number 2 (12)

A Field Study of Backster’s Either or Rule and Scoring Systems – Matte
Integrated Zone and ASIT PolySuite Field Validity Study – Shurany & Chaves
Comparison between 7 Point Scale and Objective Scoring System – Lesniak & Zubanska

Volume 5-2011-Number 2 (16)

Psychological Aspects of Quadri-Track Zone Comparison – Matte
Polygraph Verification Test – Shurany

Volume 5-2011-Number 3-4 (17-18)

Effect of Habituation in Examinations – Matte
Analysis of Facial Skin Temperature – Polakowski, Kastek & Piliski
Result of Polygraph as Argument in Criminal Investigation – Ibek
Efficiency Formula for Polygraph Examination – Salduziunas & Kovalenka
Legal Admissibility of Employee Polygraph in Poland – Widacki & Cempura

Volume 7-2013-Number 4 (26)

History of Polygraph in Poland – Widacki
fMRI Lie Detection Validity & Admissibility as Evidence in Court – Matte

Volume 8-2014-Number 3 (29)

Polygraph examination analysis as evidence – Konieczny
Content analysis algorithm to statement veracity assessment – Wojciechowski

Volume 8-2014-Number 4 (30)
Detection of concealed information with P300 potential amplitude analysis – Wojciechowski

Selected Problems in Evaluation of Polygraph Results – Lesniak

Volume 12-2018-Number 1-43

The effectiveness of fMRI data when combined with polygraph data.pdf

Volume 12 – 2018 – Number 2-44

Idiosyncrasies in chart evaluation.pdf

Volume 12 – 2018 - Number 3(45)

Setting the Record Concerning QTZCT and BZCT

RESEARCH DIGESTS

2014:

Volume 1 Number 1: Rebuttal to Cushman by Matte concerning Matte Quadri-Track Inside Track

Volume 1 Number 2: Evaluation of Skin Conductance at Alternate Anatomical Sites

Volume 1 Number 3: Ocular-Motor Methods for Detecting Deception

Volume 1 Number 4: Error Related Alpha Suppression: An Arousal Response To Mistakes?

2015:

Volume 2 Number 1: Differential Symptom Contribution to the Error related Negativity Across Tasks

Volume 2 Number 2: Psychopathic Traits & Susceptibility to Contagious Yawning

Volume 2 Number 3: Constructing Rich False Memories of Committing Crime

Volume 2, Number 4: Identifying and Cultivating Superforecasters as a Method of Improving Probabilistic Predictions

Volume 2, Number 5: LIMITED CRITIQUE OF BOOK: Fundamentals of Polygraph Practice,
Volume 2, Number 6  SCIENTIFIC VALIDATION OF POLYGRAPH TECHNIQUES REVISITS ADMISSIBILITY IN COURT by James Allan Matte and Denis A. Kitchen

2016:

Volume 3, Number 1  Limited Critique of Book: Detecting Deception: Current Challenges and Cognitive Approaches

Volume 3, Number 2  When Threat Is Near, Get Out of Here Dynamics of Defensive Behavior During Freezing and Active Avoidance

Volume 3, Number 3  Effects of Room Temperature on Concealed Information Test.docx

Volume 3, Number 4  Orienting versus inhibition in the Concealed Information Test: Different cognitive processes drive different physiological measures.

Volume 3, Number 5  External validity of Concealed Information Test experiment: Comparison of respiration, skin conductance, and heart rate.

2017:

Volume 4, Number 1  A research study into the accuracy of interviewer decisions of truth or deception of an innocent criminal suspect pre and post Forensic Assessment Interview Technique (FAINT) training.

2018:

Volume 1, Number 1  Detecting and dealing with countermeasures - Ukraine (POSSIBLE PSYCHOPHYSIOLOGICAL METHODS OF COUNTERING POLYGRAPHOLOGICAL CHOICE, METHODS OF DETERMINING AND TERMINATION OF SUCH TIPS)

Volume 1, Number 2  Features of the photoplethysmograms usage in the presence of difficulties in cardiac signal analysis – Ukraine

2019:

Volume 1, Number 1  Effects of Negative Motivation on Deception

Volume 1, 2019, Number 2  Lessons from Pinocchio

Volume 1, 2019, Number 3  Hide and Seek: The attempt to conceal (vs. reveal) information during CIT examinations.
